A BOUTIQUE OF FINE HANDCRAFTED ARCHTOPS

THE LONDONER

We are thrilled to announce our latest release...The Londoner, a Nigel Price Signature guitar.

Nigel Price

THE STORY SO FAR....

Our initial introduction to award winning jazz guitarist, Nigel Price, came through Martin Taylor. In our subsequent conversations with Nigel, it was determined that we were missing something in our range of guitars. Nigel was after a 17", thinline with 637mm scaling, and floating AVR11 bridge...at that time we didn't make a guitar to this specification. Our focus had been on smaller body archtops. So, working with Nigel to develop a guitar that we did not yet offer, was an ideal collaboration. It just so happened that Nigel lives in Epsom, a 10 minute drive away from our workshop in Worcester Park, SW London. So, in a relatively short period of time, we finalised the specifications for the guitar, confirmed the overall design, and built a prototype - a carved flame maple top, finished in bister nitro. The result is stunning.

THE PICKUP OPTIONS

We needed to give this beautiful guitar a pickup that could recall the sounds of the guts and soul of the 60's jazz era. So, following on from exhaustive pickup comparisons between many established classics, it was decided that a new pickup needed to be created....a floating humbucker containing alnico four and five magnets, with the wound strings coil tapped to allow the clarity to remain in the low end when rolling off treble at the top. This would give the all round richness of tone that Nigel had been searching for. The new pickup's casing needed to accommodate the required turns of wire. Therefore, fulfilling the requirements, of the design, the result is a larger than normal size floating humbucker. Thus, being big on sound and size, we aptly named it the 'Big Ben'!

So now for a name for the guitar. Well, since Nigel was born and bred a Londoner, and given we are based in London, and given London is renowned as the 'beating heart' of the Jazz World, the name 'Londoner' seemed appropriate. After much deliberation, and with the input from many of Nigel's Facebook friends, the name
